

Privacy Notice for Sexual Health Expert Panel Engagement

We will keep this privacy notice under regular review; it was last updated in June 2020. When we use your personal data, City of York Council (CYC) complies with data protection legislation, and is the registered 'Controller'. Our data protection notification is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) – reference Z5809563.

Why will information be collected?

City of York Council are asking local stakeholders in sexual health to complete a survey on what they would like a Sexual Health Expert Panel (SHEP) group to be like.

Participation is voluntary and you can choose not to answer some of the survey questions.

You can withdraw your consent at any time, by contacting: business.intelligence@york.gov.uk or 01904 551550.

What information will be collected?

This survey will include collection of name, job role and organisation as well as asking for your thoughts and opinions.

What will we do with the information?

Information collected will be used to inform the development of a York SHEP group.

The information we collect will be included in presentations, reports and performance framework. Any data for publication or use outside of the authorised officers will be anonymised and will not identify any individuals.

We will not use the data for any other purpose than stated and will not disclose to a third party ie other companies or individuals, unless we are required to do so by law for the prevention of crime and detection of fraud, etc.

Online data will be collected using SurveyMonkey. To find out how they use your information, please click here.

How long will we keep the information?

We will keep the information you give us and your personal data for up to three years and then will securely destroy it.

Where required or appropriate to, at the end of the retention period, we will pass onto the City Archives any relevant information

Further Processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Notice, we will provide you with a new notice explaining the purpose prior to commencing the processing and the processing conditions.

Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your consent prior to the new processing.
